THE DAILY REGISTER,
Wednesday, Nov. 6, 1968-431

TIMELY SIGN — Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Lisi raised a large sign on the exterior of their 149 Branch Ave. home yesterday proclaiming "Manny and Rose voted 'yes' for the police raise." As the Lisis went, so did lots of other Red Bank voters who approved the 15 per cent pay hike better than 2 to 1. Showing their approval for Mrs. Lisi's support of local police are Sgt. Vernon Patterson, left, and Patrolman Frank Calandriello. (Register Staff Photo)

Wallace, Nixon Wrest South

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The battle for electoral votes across the South turned into a contest between GOP presidential nominee Richard M. Nixon and third party candidate George C. Wallace.

The Democratic standard-bearer, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, won vote-rich Texas—but this appeared to be the only state of the old Confederacy which Humphrey would carry.

Humphrey seemed on his way to becoming the first Democrat presidential nominee in 100 years to fail to carry a single state in the Deep South.

Wallace, who made his final campaign appeal in Atlanta and said it was "from the soul of the South," carried four Southern states — Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi. He was leading in Arkansas.

Nixon carried Florida, Virginia, Tennessee, South Carolina and North Carolina. Nixon's showing in the South deprived Wallace of the large Southern base of electoral votes he had expected.

At the same time, the Wallace drive seemed to undercut

Republican efforts to strengthen their party in the South.

The brightest spot for Southern Republicans striving to build state party organizations was Florida, where Republican Edward J. Gurney defeated former Gov. Leroy Collins to become the first member of his party elected to the U.S. Senate from Florida since Reconstruction.

But many Wallace supporters tended to vote for the former Alabama governor in the presidential race, and then vote for Democratic candidates in other

For instance, James Allen of Gadsden, Ala., Wallace's lieutenant governor during the third party candidate's term as

In Georgia, where Wallace polled nearly half the popular vote, Democratic Sen. Herman E. Talmadge won an overwhelming victory over Republican challenger Earl Patton Jr.

A Democratic veteran of 14 years in Congress, Sen. Sam Ervin of North Carolina — a state where Nixon was leading — won a solid victory over the GOP nominee, Bob Somers. In South Carolina, a Nixon state, Democratic Sen. Ernest F. Hollings won re-election over his Republican opponent, Marshall J. Parker. In Arkansas, where Wallace led, Democratic Sen. J. W. Fulbright won in his bid for a fifth term.

Louisiana and Mississippi, both Wallace states, gave comfortable margins to Democratic congressional candidates. Yet the Republican picture in

Two incumbent Republican Congressmen in Alabama were re-elected, as was a GOP Congressman in Georgia. Arkansas

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, first GOP chief executive in the state since Reconstruction, held a precarious lead. And, in North Carolina, Republican Wilmer "Vinegar Bend" Mizell, a former professional baseball pitcher, won a congressional seat with a victory over Democratic nominee Smith Bagley, an heir to the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. fortune.

Jordan Lifts Amman Curfew

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — The two-day confrontation between King Hussein and rebellious Palestinian guerrillas appeared ended today and the government lifted the curfew on Amman.

Commando sources in Damascus reported Hussein and leaders of four commando groups in Jordan had reached an agreement. They said the guerrilla leaders telephoned the news from the royal palace in Amman, but there was no immediate confirmation from Jordanian officials.

The curfew was lifted at midnight Tuesday.
